THE cloud in the East of Europe, though at ing the spark to set half Europe in a blaze. The disastrous little war between Service and Bulgaria is not a year old, and the anxiety it occasioned is fresh enough in the minds of all who have reason to watch the political baromoter. . It was only the other day that er has the warlike spirit of the Hellenic Government been, with difficulty, composed to newly created principality of Bulgaria. It is suddenly announced by telegram that a revolution has broken out and that Prince ALEX-ANDER, lately so popular in his principality. has been compelled to abdicate. Succeeding telegraphic messages show the progress of the revolution to have been thave planned a coup d'état by which Prince ALEXANDER was removed over the borders Sophia. Nevertheless, they | HONGKONG LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL may not deem it prudent to make a further move in this direction, as the last step has evidently been checkmated. It-would seem, however, that in any case Russia has resolved upon a policy of action, by forcing events, Hon. W. H. MARSH, C.M.G., and turning them to her advantage. |That she is prepared to intervene by force of arms in Bulgaria is, as we have intimated by no means certain, but it is reported that she has secured permission for her troops to pass through Roumania, and though this report has been denied, the presence of Ruseian officers at Bucharest gives a colour to it which has been deepened by subsequent events. The ill-concealed hostility of Russia to Austria, which has resulted in the dissolution of the triple alliance, is also significent, and bodes ill for the maintenance of peace for any length of time. The Acting Attorney-General-Mr Martin is here, my Lord. I understand the meaning of that first note is as follows. When the books were made up in June, 1885, there was an amount short then of about 8500. Mr. Martin agreed to take the prisoner's I.O.U. for it, and to allow him to pay it off by instalments. The prisoner paid various instalments, and reduced that 3500 to the 8323 mentioned in the depositions. In June or July this year, however, when they balanced the books, they found out a larger deficiency of $1,157, and thereupon steps were taken to prosecute the prisoner.

Mr. Leach-With your Lordship's permission I should like to make a remark—two remarks. The first is that your Lordship will not forget by this information to which the prisoner has servation I would make to your Lordship is that it does not appear in any way that the nut embezzle it at all, but that Mr. Martin impressed upon him that he was liable for it, and weeks.

His Lordship, after making some observation which was inaudible at the reporters' desk, said that on the pravious day the prisoner wished to ed if he still wished to do so.

The prisoner, after consulting his solicitor, said through an interpreter, whose services were called in requisition at his own desire—I wish to inform your Lordship as to the balance of $500 Lammert, M. ABOUT A MARVELLOUS CURE. LIVING SIX YEARS WITHOUT

GOING TO BED. Mr. EDITOR,-While spending a few days at the pleasant seaside town of Aberystwith, Cardiganshire. Wales, I heard related what seemed to me either a fabulous story or a marvellous cure. The story was that a poor sufferer who had not been able to lie down in bed for six long years. given up to die by all the Doctors, had been speedily cured by some Patent Medicine. It was related with the more implicit confidence from Llanguaged was familiar with the facts, and could | E E rough for the truth of the report. Having a little curiosity to know how such stories grow in travelling, I took the liberty while at the village of Llanrystyd to call upor the Vicar, the Rev. T. Evans, and to enquire Address:- Care of Messrs. Kwone Sung & Co., about this wonderful cure. Though a total stranger to him, both he and his wife most graciously entertained me in a half hour's conversation, principally touching the case of Mr. Pugh, in which they seemed to take a deep and sympathetic interest, having been familiar with his sufferings, and now rejoiced in what seemed to them a most remarkable ours. The Vicar remarked that he presumed his name had been connected with the report from his having mentioned the case to Mr. John Thomas a chemist of Llanon. He said Mr. Pugh was formerly a resident of their parish, but was now living in the parish of Llanddeinol

He strongly vouched Mr. Wm. Pagh's character as a respectable farmer and worthy of credit. I left the venerable Vicar with a livelier. sense of the happy relation of a pastor and people, feeling that he was one who truly sympathised with all who are afflicted in mind, body, or estate. On my return to Aberystwith. I was impressed with a desire to see Mr. Pugh, whose reputation stood so high. His farm is called Pancom-Mawr. signifying "above the dingle," situated near the summit of a smooth round hill, overlooking a beautiful valley in which is situated the lovely ivymentled Church of Llanddeinel.
